

The Sunbeam

President's Column

Craig Krueger

Hope you all are enjoying hot weather and wind. I'm definitely not. It's an age thing, the older I get the harder it is to do things outdoors. Seems like Iowa State Fair weather has come a little early.

Last month's club meeting discussions centered around erecting a privacy fence on the west side where the mowers are parked. All agreed on the project. A date for installation will come at a later time, cooler weather permitting.

Second discussion was on a X734 John Deere mower for the club. With the current mowers in relatively good shape, decided to pass the mower.

Kougar Project Update

Progress is a little slow. Thought I would have it finished by now. I can't use the excuse I was mowing grass all the time, it hasn't rained for quite some time. I did finish covering, ready for airborne system, landing gear, etc. Below is how the plane looks. The plane looks better in the picture than in person. Covering didn't quite turn out like I wanted, but hey, the plane was free. Haven't worked with Monokote for a long time. Didn't give justice to the Monokote.

And finally, walking by a building I noticed a sign on the door.

"This building is guarded by a shotgun 3 nights a week. You guess which 3."
