

The Sunbeam

President's Column by Craig Krueger

As you might guess, having pretty good weather for flying kind of slows progress of the infamous "To Do" list. Surprising how long items stay on the list. BUT, they will get donesometime!

Scratch build project also has slowed a little. Had to find a good fitting canopy which took some time. Ended up getting a canopy for a Great Planes P51 60 size. As the picture shows, needs some trimming but should work fine. Also, finished sheeting the fuel tank cover. Engine has been fitted, as well as the landing gear.

Probably the next big thing to do is sand everything. Got an idea of colors for covering, but I want to make sure that the paint matches the covering.

Enjoy flying when you can.

Take Care.

Craig

Notes

A patch of blue.

There is not much to report this month. The Allis has a new belt on the belly mower. Frank is looking after the hydraulic motor for the Jacobsen mower deck. It has been leaking hydraulic fluid, and lately to the point of soaking the blade belt, making it too slick to pull the blades through a heavy load.

Many of you reading this have not renewed membership for this year. To date we only have about 15 paid members. We need around 30 to cover annual expenses. If there is a reason you have not rejoined, could you please communicate that to the Executive Council.

If you have a project going, please let Denny know about it. He would like to compile a list for general interest. To start, Craig Kruger is continuing the build of his Lanier Stinger 120. Denny Goodrich is recovering two trainers he got at the last auction for $1 each. A Goldberg Falcon II and a Goldberg Eagle II. About ready to cover is a 1/4 scale Fleet biplane. I cost $1, too and the engine for it has been taken from another $1 plane! On the one hand they only cost $4. On the other the way they were obtained was four-bidding! Better watch out.

The 6th Annual CornHuckFest will be held on June 23-26, 2016 in Council Bluffs, IA with our hosts the Twin City Eagles RC Club. This event will bring 100 or more pilots from around the Midwest to join in all types of RC flying from giant scale to foamies! All are welcome!!! Spectators are encourage to attend for free!
