

The Sunbeam

President's Column

by Craig Krueger

With flying season getting into full swing, don't forget safety. PLEASE follow the field rules. For review, check the information board at the field. And, if welcomed, help another flyer if needed. And if someone offers you help, it may be because they feel you need some. Be gracious enough to accept if at all possible. Great way to have a conversation.

And let us not forget about mowing the field. Time changes the way we have gotten accustomed to how things get done. It really helps out to once in a while relieve the few who seem to get the mowing done. Everybody has busy schedules, so any help will be greatly appreciated.

Last week, April 27-May 2, saw the most activity at the field in a long time. It was great to see so many folks taking advantage of the nice weather and just B.S'ing.

Always wondered how to tell if you are an RC airplane modeler.

1. You have more than one scar on your "Cranking hand".
2. You spend more time at the office browsing online hobby sites than doing your work.
3. 110-degree days are forecast for the weekend and you hope it isn't windy.
4. You keep feeling for the trim tabs on your TV remote.
5. You have at least three planes in various stages of completion. (Sounds like somebody I know)

Take care,
Craig

Executive Council Minutes

The Executive Council met on 4/30/2015 at the field. Present were Craig Kreuger, Dave Sult, Mark Taylor, Dennis Goodrich, Kent Woods and Dave Popelka.

Have picked up 2 new members and one re-joiner. The Allis the Ahrens are at the field for mowing.

Today (4/30) a member was at the field who was observed to be incompetent but was not receptive to help. This is a safety issue. Whatever issues a person has, if safety is compromised it must be made known that discussions will ensue! It is incumbent upon all of us to cooperate.

Do we (the club) need to create a mentorship model for welcoming new people who join to make sure they are competent and safe operators?

Jacobsen repair is still hanging 10.

Sidewall research from Craig shows a sketch prepared at a Menard's. Object is to create a wind break and a shade from late afternoon sun.

Special Executive Council Minutes

MEETING R.E. Scott Olson UAV Agricultural Event

While not initially intended to use our field circumstances have changed. Scott wants to use the field for vendors demonstrations.

The club must insist on a sanction to protect the club. Event sponsors will pay the sanction fee. Should the club charge a rental fee for such an outside event?

Kent Woods can CD

All flyers will need to present their AMA card
All flying according to AMA rules and guidelines
Establish a parking line beyond which cars cannot park.
The field will still be open to regular flying.

Event sponsor must be clear with his vendors on this.

A note to members regarding use of the field: The field is reserved for use by members of the club for flying purposes. It is not a place to which a member can bring an event on their own without consulting the Executive Council, which is charged with governance.

As of 5/7 a sanction from AMA has been obtained.
